No. C 10-2590 CW

ORDER FOR FURTHER
BRIEFING ON
CONTEMPT MOTION

Plaintiffs,

(Docket No. 578)

v.

8 MOTIONPOINT CORP.,

Defendant.
10

11 _____/
12 On April 2, 2015, the Court held a hearing on TransPerfect's
13 Motion for an Order to Show Cause Why MotionPoint Should Not be
14 Held in Contempt for Violating the Permanent Injunction
15 Prohibiting Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 6,857,022. The Court
16 ordered the parties to meet and confer to determine a schedule for 17 exchanging information and to set a briefing schedule to address
18 new issues raised. The parties have not reported any agreement.
19

20 Therefore, the Court hereby ORDERS MotionPoint to submit
21 within two weeks of the date of this order: (1) records
22 demonstrating compliance monitoring, discovered instances of non-
23 compliance, and steps taken to fix instances of non-compliance;
24 (2) a declaration or other evidence supporting the contention that
25 its design-around is controlled and implemented by MotionPoint
26 only and not by its customers; (3) a detailed plan to prevent non-
27 compliance due to technical errors and the disabling of 28 JavaScript.

1        Within two weeks of the date of MotionPoint's submission,
2 TransPerfect shall submit a brief no longer than ten pages
3 addressing any new issues raised by the submission and proposing a
4 remedy that is proportional to the alleged violation.
5 TransPerfect shall also attach itemized billing records to support
6 the amount of its request for attorneys' fees and costs.
7 Defendant may file a response of ten pages or less two weeks
8 thereafter. Plaintiff may file a reply of up to five pages within
9 seven days thereafter. The matter will be decided on the papers
10 unless a hearing is set by the Court.

11
12        IT IS SO ORDERED.
